SIMON FRASER UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1999, the Minerva Foundation for BC Women will create opportunities for women throughout BC to realize their economic and leadership potential through innovative donor and community partnerships and entrepreneurial strategies that stimulate philanthropy. This bursary for BC women seeking to advance their education at Simon Fraser University is a result of the generosity of the Nancy Harrison and Paul Buitenhuis in conjunction with the Minerva Foundation and the Simon Fraser University. The award will be granted on the basis of financial need and academic proficiency, with preference given to a single mother. Undergraduate students must be registered in a minimum of nine semester hours of normal graded courses. Graduate students must be registered in an approved full-time program. The award will be granted in two installments. To be eligible for the second installment, the recipient must maintain a minimum CGPA of 2.00
