Suzanne Lee Teacher's Education Endowment Fund

Founded in 1999, the Minerva Foundation for BC Women will create opportunities for women throughout BC to realize their economic and leadership potential through innovative donor and community partnerships and entrepreneurial strategies that stimulate philanthropy. This bursary for BC women seeking to advance their education at a recognized British Columbia college or university is a result of the generosity of the Suzanne Lee Teacher's Education Endowment Fund in conjunction with the Minerva Foundation. The Minerva Foundation Award will be made available to a resident of BC. The candidate will be a woman studying in the field of education at a recognized British Columbia college or university.

Preference will be given to a woman meeting at least one of the following criteria:

1. Assist single mothers in advancing their education.
2. Re-train a mature woman returning to the workforce.
3. A woman pursuing post-graduate studies.
4. An immigrant woman, aboriginal woman or woman with disabilities which might have barriers to advancing her education.

The bursary will be granted on the basis of financial need and academic proficiency.
